

REMARKS

Applicant concurrently submits a Request for Continued Examination to permit entry of this Amendment.

Reconsideration and allowance of the above-reference application are respectfully requested. Claims 1, 16, 23, 38 are amended, and claims 1-44 are pending in the application.

Claims 1-44 stand rejected under 35 USC §102(e) in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,269,336 to Ladd et al. This rejection is respectfully traversed. The arguments presented in the January 16, 2004 response are incorporated in their entirety herein by reference.

The Advisory Action asserted that Ladd “teaches that the markup language servers ... and the voice browser server store markup language documents defining voice application user interface controls.”

The Advisory Action also incorrectly asserted that applicant argued “printing” is being performed. In fact, the argument was that Ladd neither discloses nor suggests generating an output file, for storage on a tangible medium, that describes selected attributes of the voice application for the user.

The independent claims have been amended to explicitly specify applicant’s argument that Ladd et al. neither discloses nor suggests generating for storage on a tangible medium an output file for use as user documentation that describes the voice application.

Ladd et al. neither discloses nor suggests that the attributes that describe the execution of the application can be supplied to the user in the form of documentation stored on a tangible medium, let alone outputting the output file having portions of the collected attributes based on the user selection.

For these and other reasons, the §102 rejection should be withdrawn.

In view of the above, it is believed this application is and condition for allowance, and such a Notice is respectfully solicited.

To the extent necessary, Applicant petitions for an extension of time under 37 C.F.R. 1.136. Please charge any shortage in fees due in connection with the filing of this paper, including any missing or insufficient fees under 37 C.F.R. 1.17(a), to Deposit Account No. 50-1130, under Order No. 95-414, and please credit any excess fees to such deposit account.

Respectfully submitted,
